Haslemere Amnesty Group application for a plaque on an existing bench

Background information:

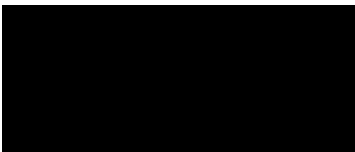

Following a plea for more trees to be planted in Haslemere after the 1987 storm the Haslemere Amnesty Group planted a swamp maple in Town Meadow in 1988. It was dedicated to 'All Prisoners of Conscience'. Over the years it became a focal point for various events including celebrating the group's 40th birthday in 2016.

Last year the group were planning a celebration to mark the release of Nazanin Zaghari Ratcliffe, the British/Iranian hostage, as the group had campaigned on her behalf for many years. This would have included rededicating the tree and replacing the plaque which had been discovered to have been broken. Unfortunately, at this time we discovered our tree had died and began to research the costs of replacing it. We also contacted the Town Hall to enquire about procedure, luckily Deputy Town Clerk, Pippa Auger, was on hand who told us that the tree had already been felled but as it no longer had a plaque the Town Council were unaware it was the local Amnesty group's tree.

Pippa outlined the procedure and responsibilities of planting a new tree as well as potential future plans for improving that area of Town Meadow in which a new tree would not be helpful. The group concluded that the responsibilities associated with planting a new tree would be rather onerous for an ageing group and began to investigate the possibility of a memorial bench instead. Having been supplied by Pippa with all the information re that procedure the group realised that it would require more funding than was available so are now applying for the addition of a plaque to an existing bench.

Application details:

- The group would prefer the plaque to be attached to a bench in Town Meadow, preferably bench No 2 as it would be nearest to the previous site of the tree but are open to other suggestions.
- Our preferred dedication would be the same as the plaque we formerly had by our tree:
Dedicated to all Prisoners of Conscience
Amnesty International: Haslemere Group
Again, we realise this is outside the norm for memorial benches and are open to discussion.
- Currently the requisite brass plaque could be made for us by 'The Shoe Box', in West Street. We are always keen to support local business but realise the Town Council may use an alternative source.
- As yet, we have no information as to who might attach the plaque or what that cost might be.
